Offense: Aggravated Robbery - Deadly Weapon - Handgun

A store employee was working at the O.S.T. food store located at 3800 Old Spanish Trail on November 18, 2014 at 8:41 p.m. and a customer was standing at the register when a black male suspect entered the business wearing a bandana over his face and holding a gun. The suspect demanded money from the register then the suspect ran behind the counter. The customer ran out of the business when the suspect ran behind the counter and sat in his vehicle. The suspect stole money from the register then ran out of the business.

The customer said he saw the suspect run out of the business so he drove toward the suspect and pinned the suspect against the building with his vehicle. The customer said the suspect was in pain so he backed his vehicle up and released the suspect then the suspect started shooting at him. The customer backed into the street as the suspect shot three shots at the suspect. A witness was standing in the 3800 block of O.S.T. and was shot in the foot by a stray bullet. The incident was recorded on the stores surveillance system.
